Access and Search As Often As Needed, Anywhere, Anytime!

Log on anywhere, anytime using just an Internet browser and your username and password.

Always Up-to-Date

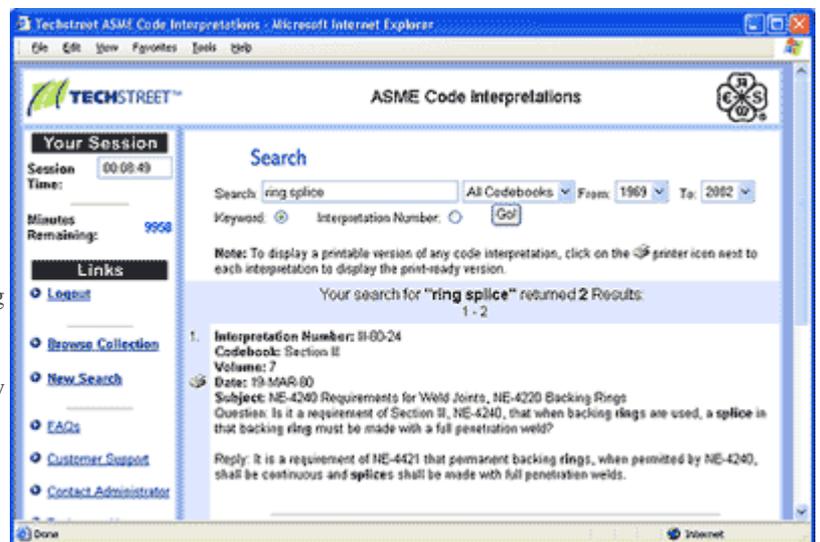

Your subscription includes Interpretations dating back to 1969, plus all new Interpretations published during the subscription period. You'll never need to update with diskettes, CDs, or new software.

Pricing and Access

A subscription to the Interpretations Database is time-based and works much like a telephone calling card. When you purchase access time, you can use the minutes any way you like. Log in and log out as often as you want for a year until your minutes are gone. There are no restrictions on the number of separate accesses. When your minutes are all used up, you can purchase additional minutes.

Multiple User Access

The Interpretations Database is designed for unlimited users at any location. Once you have created a subscription account, you can "invite" other users to access your minutes. Each receives their own username and password. The minutes they use will be deducted from your account. You will get comprehensive reports about users on your account.
