The AD 2000 Code in English

exclusively from Beuth – Europe's technical publisher

PRINT // ONLINE // CD-ROM //

AD 2000 – Safety requirements according to the European Pressure Equipment Directive.

The AD 2000 Code specifies in detail – as does the DIN EN 13445 and DIN EN 13480 European Standards series – the material property requirements, which according to the European Pressure Equipment Directive (97/23/EC) must be met by pressure vessels and pipes. It's an indispensable tool and your entry ticket to the European market. The AD 2000 Code is published by VdTÜV.

» AD 2000: Comprising over 100 data sheets with the knowledge of experts and detailed information in the following fields:

- // Design
- // Manufacturing/ testing
- // Materials
- // Special cases

... and more.

The AD 2000 data sheets that make up the Code are developed by the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Druckbehälter (German Pressure Vessel Association).

Members of this association include:

- German Association of Steam Boiler, Pressure Vessel and Piping Manu try (VCI)
- German Engineering Federation e. V. (VDMA)
- German Steel Institute VDEh
- VGB Power Tech e. V.
- German Association of Technical Inspection Services e. V. (VdTÜV)
